PROVERBS CONCLUSION

DAVID ANDERSON

How has the series in Proverbs impacted you? Have you struggled with Proverbs because you feel helpless when the wisdom of God is held up like a mirror to your life?

Often times we hear the commands of Scripture, try to live the commands of Scripture and fail miserably. Somewhere in the process and the defeat, we as Christians may have disengaged our hearts and decided to go into cruise control. We listen, but we aren't listening. Is it possible that this is describing you this morning?

We can't finish Proverbs without talking about the end. As we finish up Proverbs, I don't want any of you to think for a second that you can live the Proverbs on your own, in your own strength, in your own power. I don't want you to think that is what God expects of you.

In Luke 24, Jesus gives His disciples a hermeneutics lesson. It's the same hermeneutic lesson we need to hear as we exit Proverbs today. From this point on, the disciples could not read the Old Testament except in the light of the resurrected Jesus and the indwelling presence of the New Covenant Holy Spirit. We will not have any success in living the Proverbs except through the resurrected Jesus and the indwelling presence of the New Covenant Holy Spirit.

Jesus is our black box. He is our encryption code in this broken, sin-stained world. Jesus' declaration to us is this: I have become for you wisdom from God—and righteousness and sanctification and redemption (1 Cor 1:30); in Me are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge (Col. 2:3). We lack nothing.

Our Women's Missionary Fellowship (WMF) group invites you to lunch with COD missionary Margaret Andersen this Wednesday, August 21 at 11:30am. Visit the table out front to sign-up or call Hanna at 626 804 7003.

MAIN IDEA

*WE CANNOT LIVE WISELY WITHOUT JESUS.
HIS CROSS, HIS RESURRECTION, AND HIS HOLY SPIRIT
EMPOWERING US IS THE ONLY WAY WE CAN BE WISE.*
