YOUR GREATEST CALLING IN 2020

MATTHEW 28:16-20

We are five days into 2020. It's a new year, a new decade and it's of the utmost importance for us all to be reminded what we have been made for.

This morning you might feel exhausted, you might feel old, you might feel defeated, you might be constantly riddled with anxiety, depression and bitterness. Could it be because we aren't doing what we are designed to do?

This morning, do you want to know what you are created for? What is your new heart crying out to experience? According to the infallible, inerrant, holy Word of God, what are we made to do?

We are created by Almighty God to make disciples!

In Matthew 28:16-20, we see Jesus' authoritative claim, His great commission and His loving assurance. We are a discipling church. Our prayer is that you would be disciplined so that you can disciple others.

We want to see God build relationships and partnerships with one another where we can pray specifically with one another, we can speak the truth in love, we can delight in the Word of the Lord together and we can hear the Holy Spirit together.
