DAVID ANDERSON | UNCOVER TO BE COVERED
SEPTEMBER 13, 2020

1) From your own experience, how has unconfessed sin or hurt affected your physical, emotional and spiritual life?

If you could do it over, what would you have done differently with that unconfessed sin or hurt?

2) Why is David called the “the man after God’s own heart”?

Let them wrestle with this some.

David committed three of the worst sins in the 10 commandments (adultery, murder, coveting, etc.). He was an absolute mess spiritually at very significant times of his life. Yet when confronted with sin, He turned to God and asked for healing.

3) Why do we grow up thinking that hiding our sins, hurts and struggles is wiser than what David experiences in uncovering his sins before God?

We would rather pretend to be something we are not than risk being rejected for who we really are. It started with Adam and Eve and continues today, we have a deep need to cover. We don’t trust that “confession” will turn out well for us.

Read Luke 7:33-50

4) According to Jesus, why did this “sinful woman” act so extravagantly towards Him while Simon (the Pharisee) did nothing?

Luke 7:47: "Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."

5) Where do you find yourself in this story? Do you identify more with the “sinful woman” or Simon? Why?
